

Fun and safe bicycle riding!

It's now a pleasant season to go bike riding! I'm thinking of going on a long bike the next time I have time off.

That sounds nice, but do you know the rules about bike riding?

①

Rule 4: Obey safety rules

The following 3 things are prohibited when bike riding. Please be extremely careful.

- Riding after drinking alcohol
- Riding with someone ※Except with children under 6 age 6
- Riding bikes side by side

I wonder if you are you obeying the next 3 rules?

- Turning your bike light on in the evening
- Obeying traffic signals
- Stopping at intersections and confirming it is safe

Rule 5: Children should wear a helmet

③

The following are also dangerous, so please refrain. Please obey the rules and ride safely. ♪

- Riding while using a cell phone
- Riding while holding an umbrella
- Riding while listening to music using earphones or headphones

④

There are statistics showing that 70% of the people who died in bike accidents didn't obey traffic rules.

I will explain about how to ride a bike. Please understand the following 5 rules and ride properly.

Rule 1: Ride on the road

When there is a distinction between a sidewalk and the road, ride on the road. However, in the following cases you can ride on the sidewalk.

First Glimpse of Japan, a French Report

©This is a letter from a French student accepted by UCIA.

Bonjour/Konnichiwa,

I'm a 21 year-old French student who just arrived in Japan.

I'm conducting a research project for my university about Asian ritual practices.

It started last September in India with Yoga and Buddhism.

In December, I entered China to study Taiji and Taoism and here I am now, in Utsunomiya.

I enjoy staying and can meet kind people like you here, in Utsunomiya.

You can meet me by chance, as I'm riding a bike on my way to the gym dojos (wearing a shinai instead of a "baguette").

Besides my volunteering within the UCIA, studying kendo and the spirit of bushido is because of my research and great interest, a purpose of my stay. See you then and thank you for being such a nice people.
